GRiZ is a Michigan-born electronic music producer and musician with his latest release, "Good Will Prevail" debuting at #1 on the electronic charts. GRiZ has become a champion of the live electronic landscape; effortlessly blending improvised saxophone, guitar, vocals and more over booming bass lines, hard drops, and some of the most creative transitions in the game. GRiZ is gearing up for another monumental festival season and preparing to make 2017 his biggest year yet. About the Orpheum Theater

The Orpheum Theater, an intimate concert and performance space in the heart of New Orleans' Central Business District, has hosted vaudeville acts, films, concerts and countless performances by the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra. The iconic venue is one of the few remaining vertical hall designs in the US. With a full renovation and passionate preservation completed, this classic space once again hosts the music-loving public as a fully restored, incomparably luxurious entertainment space. The Orpheum Theater is owned by Dr. Eric George and Roland and Mary von Kurnatowski.
