

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contacts: Jennifer Rowland 504-491-6111

or Virginia Saussy 504-259-6391

Spend First Saturdays on Historic Magazine Street

First Saturdays on Magazine Street offers miles and miles of art, entertainment, fashion, home decor and dining. Each month merchants along this historic thoroughfare keep their doors open late on the first Saturday for a unique date night, a girls (or guys) night out or just a great excuse to indulge.

Magazine Street has been a long-time local favorite and visitor destination, drawing shoppers, art collectors and diners to New Orleans' six-mile stretch of historic Magazine Street.

Sponsored by the Magazine Street Merchants

Association, First Saturday showcases the variety of local businesses flourishing along this unique corridor. Merchants participating August 5th, 5-8PM for the first of the First Saturdays include Belladonna, Fleurty Girl, FunRock'n & Pop City, Hemline, NOLA Couture, Petcetera, Phina, The Market | Magazine & Sixth, The Shops at 2011, Zèle, Alex Beard Studio, Feet First, Fleur D'Orleans, Gabrielle & Company, Kevin Gillentine Gallery, Lily Rain, NOLA Boards, NO Fleas Market, Pilot and Powell, Shades of Blue, Sotre, Spirit Wine, tasc Performance, Verduré Olive Oil Company, Bywater NOLA, all in addition to those outstanding Magazine Street cafes, restaurants and bars.

The Magazine Street Merchants Association, a non-profit organization, is a coalition of businesses on Magazine Street celebrating a diversity of offerings for over twenty years. We invite you to experience Magazine Street for yourself. For more information visit magazinestreet.com.

For images, interviews and more information, contact Virginia Saussy or Jennifer Rowland, saussyrowlandconsulting@gmail.com For a detailed guide, events and happenings on Magazine Street visit magazinestreet.com.

