FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Essence of Style Design Symposium Welcomes Renowned Interior Designer Richard Keith Langham.

The Friends of Longue Vue (FLV) are proud to present the 2017 Essence of Style Design Symposium featuring prominent interior designer, Richard Keith Langham. This year a second speaker, antique textile designer Rebecca Vizard, will add a complimentary and dynamic flair to the symposium. Chaired by Suzanne Krieger and Kathy Weidner, proceeds from the design symposium benefit Longue Vue House and Gardens.

The grand event kicks off with an exquisite designer reception at Longue Vue House and Gardens on Thursday November the 2nd from 5:00pm to 7:00pm. Guests will enjoy cocktails, fine fare catered by Brennan's, and conversation with both Richard Keith Langham and Rebecca Vizard. Tickets are $125.00.

The luncheon and lecture will take place on Friday November 3rd at the Cannery with delicious catering by local favorite, Brennan's. The speakers will present their expertise and be available for book signings. Attendees will also have the chance to win prizes, shop the Longue Vue gift shop, and network. Tickets are $125.00 for Longue Vue members and $145.00 for nonmembers.

Contact Lydia Vaughn at 504.293.4722 or lvaughn@longuevue.com for sponsor options. You can also learn more about the symposium online at www.longuevue.com/symposium.

About Richard Keith Langham

From Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and Mrs. William F. Buckley to Hillary Swank, this Alabama-born designer has mastered residencies around the country and abroad. With a love for clear color and real comfort, his stylish rooms are grounded in English sensibilities.

About Rebecca Vizard

Widely considered a visionary for her innovative use of rare and beautiful textiles, Rebecca Vizard is distinguished among today's interior design community. Her compositions of unusual elements are complimented by exquisite craftsmanship and creative process.
